Our IIBA BABOK v3.0 Study Group Program

- Are you interested in learning about the practice of Business Analysis?
- Are you interested in ECBA, CCBA or CBAP certification?
- Would like to dive into the body of knowledge to learn more about the content of A Guide to the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge(IIBA BABOK v3.0)?
- Are you looking to advance your career by growing your technical competencies?

IIBA Southeast Michigan is once again having an online IIBA BABOK v3.0 Study Group for those individuals interested in learning the BABOK IIBA for any reason.

The Program includes meetups and peer-to-peer connection during the Program. You can collaborate with others in the Program and benefit from others as they grow their competencies.

IIBA Chapter will run the study group for 10 sessions on Monday evenings. This study group will provide minimum 20 Professional Development (PD) credit hours for those students seeking certification, and provide a practice test opportunity for all students. Students will be provided with study group material. This study group program provides opportunity to acquire the full 35 hours required for the CBAP certification application.

This study group will be facilitated by multiple facilitators. Individuals will be present as a coach during the sessions and thru the week.

If you have any questions concerning this study group, please email president@semichigan.iiba.org
